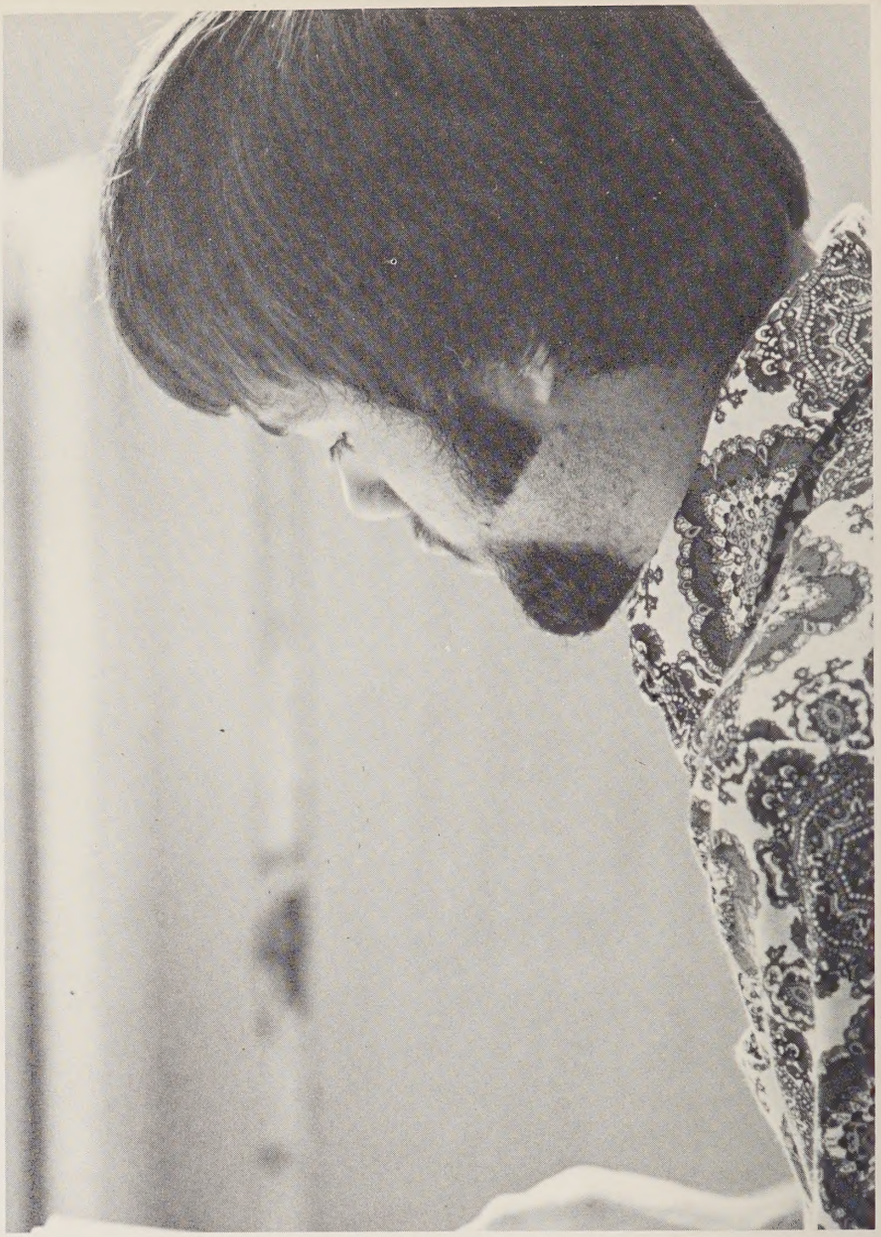
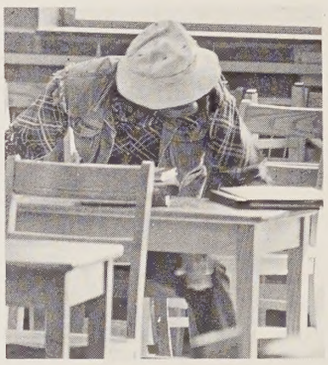
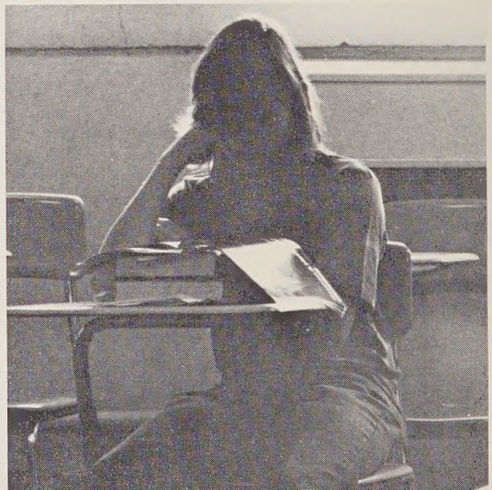
OPEN ROAD . . . . . .

Each step I take I will never take again
The wind blows my foot-prints away
My road continues over new land
It won't permit me to stay.

I can no longer turn and look behind



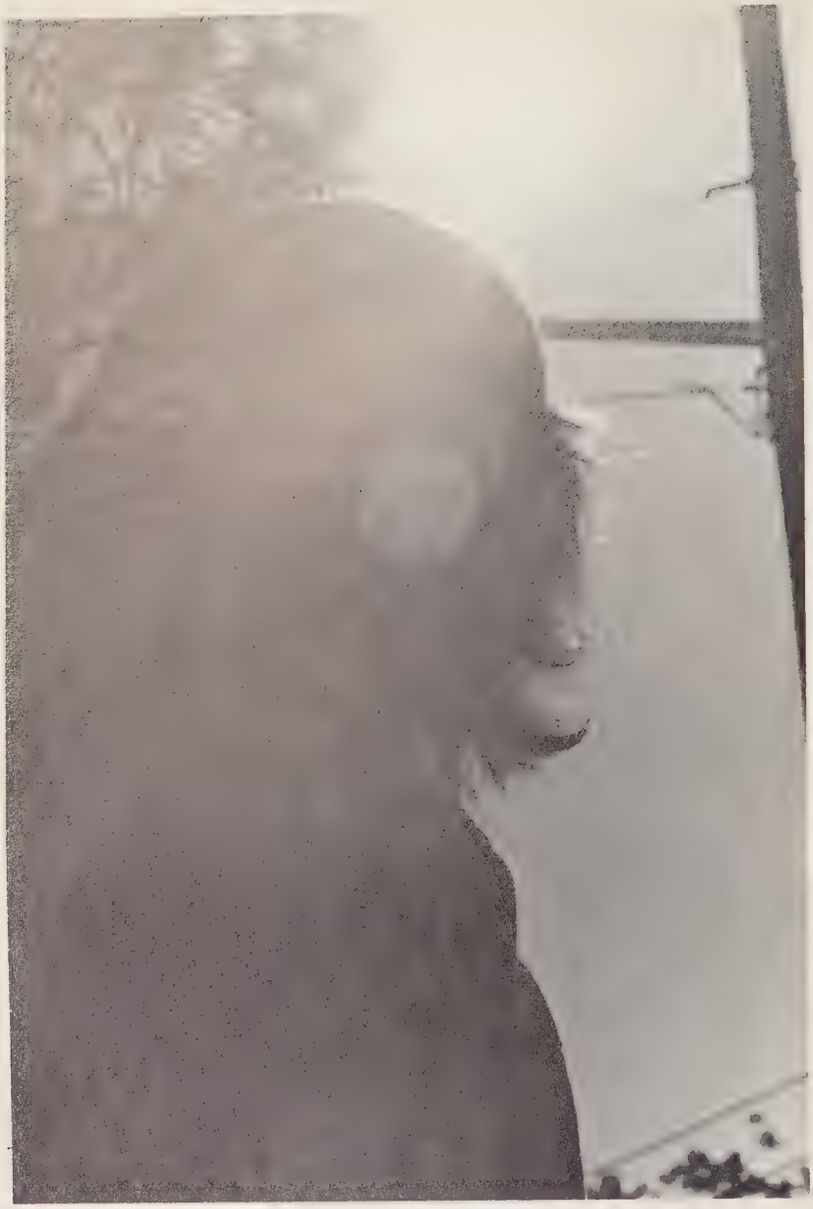




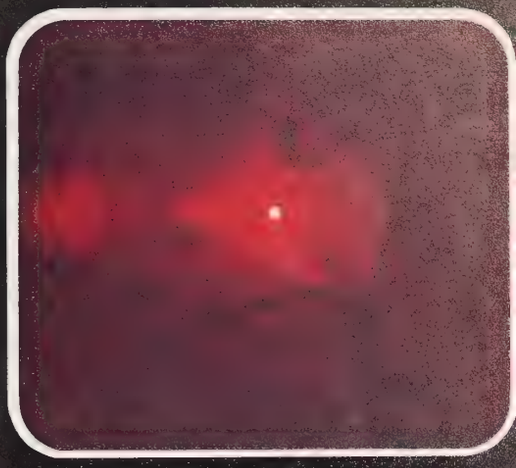
To yesterday and my trail,

For I see nothing there to ease my mind;

I look on and on I sail.



There is an open road before me
And a light shines far ahead;
The wind sings a melody
And the song has not been said.



Yes, I have known love
And love has known me;
It is what open road is of.

I know now I'll find what I see;

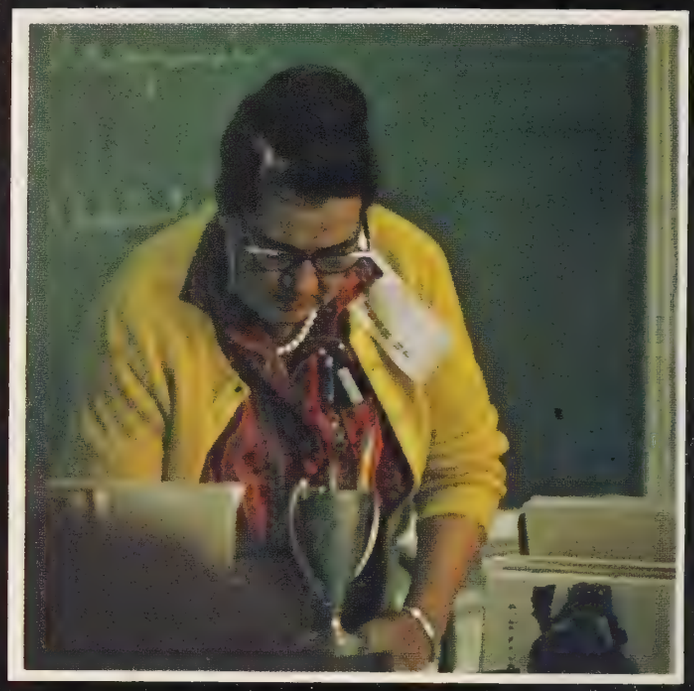
I'm running,
Open road . . .



DEDICATION

When her students relaxed their standards she demanded quality instead of quantity. When her students shouted for their rights she taught them that every right has a corresponding responsibility. To those who are closest to her and love her, she is "Miss Chic."

We who have felt the strength of her character and the force of her personality do lovingly and sincerely dedicate the 1975 Laureate to Mrs. Chicora Westmoreland.

yes I see it as the summation
of a brief existence
the hourglass
within and without me
takes my life away
it comes just to pass
perhaps slowly
or too fast
for me to take in
I stand at my foundation sure of the past
maybe not understanding yet sure because it can't be changed
I see today
as something I dreamed of yesterday
I think of tomorrow
as a fantasy I haven't reached

SPORTS

THE R. HUGH LOCKABY AWARD

The R. Hugh Lockaby Trophy is an annual award given by The Mountain AAA Conference to the member school with the best conference record in all sports events. The 1973-74 school year was the first year that the trophy, named in honor of the former principal of Hendersonville High School, has been presented. The winner is determined by the accumulation of points based on the position each team finishes in the conference standings at the end of each sport season. The points given are: first place 20, second place 18, and down to 1 point for 12th place.

Hendersonville High won the 1973-74 trophy with an accumulated point total of 177. Brevard High was second with 166 points and T.C. Roberson High was third with 165 points.

We, at Hendersonville High feel very honored and privileged to have won the trophy in its first year of presentation. Hendersonville is the smallest school in the Ivy Conference, and we also feel it's the Best.

Students,

The coaches at H.H.S. believe that the lasting benefits received from athletics are something that all students should be able to receive. With this objective in mind our athletic program will strive to be an ever expanding one of excellence. We now have eleven team sports in our program, with expectations of adding more in the near future.

Through the constant hard work and dedication of the athletes, students, and administration, we now have one of the best athletic programs in the state. The R. Hugh Lockaby Trophy is a sign of proof to this fact.

With our progressive improvements in facilities and equipment, it is our goal to maintain the overall excellence of the athletic program. Your continued enthusiasm and good work will make this goal a reality.

Sincerely,
Joe Hunt

money and the world of work

Just think back a half dozen years and recall the allowance you may have gotten before you entered your teens and started earning money on your own. That sum — whether it was 50¢ a week or more — wouldn't go far today.

It becomes apparent, no matter how you look at it, that money has no value in itself. It's only so much paper or bits of alloy.

Only work — and the things work produces — has real value.

We work for someone. We get money. We use that money to buy the work (the goods and services) of others. That's the system.

But to make the system work properly, everyone who's able to work has to give as much value for the money he earns as he expects to get for the money he spends.

Take this example: When you set out to buy a new car, or a stereo, or a washing machine (the work of others), you demand top quality workmanship — the very best.

And that's why you need to do your very best . . . meeting the needs of your job and the customers it serves — no matter what you do now, or in the future.

That's the way the system has to work.

GOODBYE

And now that it's all over
The birds can nest again.
I'll only snow when the sun comes out,
I'll shine only when it starts to rain.

And if you want a drink,
just squeeze my hand and wine will flow into the land
and feed my lambs.

For I am a mirror.
I can reflect the moon.
I will write songs for you.
I'll be your silver spoon.

I'm sorry I took your time.
I am the poem that doesn't rhyme.
Just turn back a page,
I'll waste away.
I'll waste away.
I'll waste away
